

RESIGNATION OF FILIPINO CABINET
LAID TO WOOD

Recent General's Free Use of Veto Power—Leaders Indignant, Ask
What Is Good of a Legislature

QUARREL IN PHILIPPINES
STARTED OVER YEAR AGO

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Washington officials in touch with recent developments in the Philippines are not surprised at the break which culminated in the resignation of the entire Filipino cabinet.

The split between Manuel L. Quezon, president of the Philippine Senate, and Governor General Wood, only follows open and active criticism by Quezon for the last several months, of Wood's policies.

A year ago a break threatened over the attempt of Governor Wood to force Filipino leaders to lease the government owned and operated Manila railroad to New York capitalists. This road has a track of 764 miles and has increased wages and paid a nice profit over a five-year period. The Filipino leaders refused to sign the lease.

Wood next aroused the antipathy of the Filipino leaders by vetoing 16 bills passed by the Philippine Legislature. One of these measures carried an appropriation for a ten-year program for the University of the Philippines.

Wood was bitterly criticized for this use of his veto.

For the last several months there have been hot discussions in the Philippine newspapers over the attempt of Wood to force the government to dispose of its sugar centrals and to liquidate the Philippine National Bank.

The Filipino leaders contended that the sugar centrals were rendering very valuable service to Filipino sugar growers and were not in sympathy with the move to close the bank.

Wood, however, took the reins in his own hands and closed 11 branches of the Philippine National Bank. This aroused a storm of protest.

The Filipinos assert that if the Philippine National Bank is closed it will place Philippine commerce and industry wholly at the mercy of foreign capital. President Quezon and other leaders made a tour of the islands protesting against Wood's policies and threatened that if the governor general closed the Philippine National Bank the Philippine Senate would open another.

The Filipinos maintain that Wood's acts are in violation of the spirit of the Jones law, passed in August, 1906, and assert that Congress intended to give them practically complete local self-government with full power to enact any legislation that does not conflict with the sovereignty of the United States over the islands.

They quote the late Congressman Jones that such was the purpose of the legislation.

Quezon recently declared that if Wood is to formulate the policies of government without consultation with the Filipino leaders the Legislature might as well be abandoned completely.

In this connection it is recalled that the Wood-Forbes report contained the recommendation that some of the features of self-government at that time possessed by the Filipinos should be withdrawn. Neither Congress nor the president, however, have taken any steps to carry out these recommendations. Wood is now endeavoring, the Filipinos assert, to bring about the same results without Congress ever having approved the recommendations.

COAL MARKET
TAKES SLUMP

Small Operators in Harlan Field Close
Plants as Demand for Product
Decreases

By Associated Press.
HARLAN, July 24.—The coal situation in Harlan county, while not alarming is decidedly on a slump operators say. A number of smaller operators have closed down temporarily and some larger ones are contemplating a similar course.

The slump is due to the poor market for coal and some of the operators claim that for some time they have been selling their coal at a tonnage loss, but preferred to continue operation rather than permit their employees to seek employment in other fields.

District 19, of the United Mine Workers of America, which embraces Harlan county, has decided on calling a strike in the district in the near future, according to President William Turnblazer, but before the strike is called an effort will be made to have a conference of miners and operators with the hope that the differences may be settled in conference without resorting to a strike. The contentions, so far as facts can be ascertained, are more one of conditions than of wages, the miners claiming that the operators have failed to carry out the provisions of the last agreement with reference to bath houses, etc.

Harlan county is not more than ten per cent organized, although an organization campaign has been going on in the county for some time. The relations between employer and employee in this county seem friendly and there is no evidence of dissatisfactions in Harlan county. The coal situation in Harlan county has been unsettled for some time. Bad car distribution following the strike last July almost closed some of the mines and those who owned their own cars were the only ones that operated anything like regularly. Some of the largest mines in the county all during the late winter and spring did not operate more than two days a week.

It is the general opinion of those close to the situation that the slump will not last longer than the first of September, if that long, and no one seems alarmed.

FIND BIG STILL AT FERN LAKE

Complete 75-Gallon Moonshine Outfit
Taken—No Arrests, Owner
Not Known

One of the largest stills ever found in this vicinity was confiscated by officers near Fern Lake yesterday afternoon. It was found in a secluded place, a mile or more from any residence, and the owner of it is not known.

A complete distilling outfit was found. This included a sixty-five gallon copper still, a seven coil one-half copper worm, seven fermenters, a fifteen gallon thump keg and other appliances necessary for making moonshine. The outfit had apparently been used recently. Large quantities of slop had been poured out near the place, indicating the outfit had been in use for a long time.

The outfit was well hidden in a ravine in the vicinity of the lake. The raiders searched for some time for it during the down-pour of rain before they found it. Apparently no one was on guard at the place as the officers did not meet with any resistance and did not see any one. The distilling outfit was brought to the city hall here.

Officers in the raiding party were: W. B. Saylor, federal prohibition officers; C. M. Yency and A. D. DeBuck, city policeman and Earl Sulth, deputy sheriff.

PLAN KENTUCKY
HOME COMING WEEK

Meet in Louisville June 16 to 22, 1921,
to Be Followed By One in Each County

The following letter, from Harry G. Evans, temporary secretary of the Kentucky Home Coming Week Association has been received in this office and will undoubtedly be of great interest to all Kentuckians:

"After an interval of eighteen years, Kentucky is to have another Home Coming Week in Louisville, to be followed by County Home Coming Weeks in each of the other 119 counties. You doubtless will remember what a wonderful event the Home Coming of 1906 was, when more than 10,000 Kentuckians who had wandered to other states and foreign countries returned to renew old acquaintances and visit again the scenes of their childhood."

"It was then planned to hold such an event every ten years, but the World War prevented, and now Kentuckians in all parts of the state have expressed the view that the time has come for another Home Coming Week. A committee on preliminary organization, headed by Mayor Huston Quinn, of Louisville, has fixed the dates for June 16 to 22, 1921, and plans outlined call for a far more elaborate affair than the one of eighteen years ago."

"A survey of the 1920 Federal census shows that there are around 1,000,000 native-born Kentuckians now living outside the state. It is the purpose to invite personally every one of this million to come back to old Kentucky for this gigantic reunion. It is a huge job to obtain the names of all these wanderers and the committee has decided to enlist the cooperation of county judges, postmasters and newspaper publishers."

TO BEGIN SOON

Concrete, Requires Fourteen Days To Harden—Expect Completion of Streets by August 11

Work of making an asphalt pavement between the ten foot concrete gutters will begin soon, according to Herbert Keld. A liberal coating of rock will be applied and rolled down on the present base. The asphalt will be rolled down to one and one half inches in thickness. Material for the work has been ordered.

Fourteen days will be required for the concrete to harden before it can be used, stated the engineer who requests the public to keep off of it for this period. The concrete work on the first block was practically finished at 3 o'clock today.

Two crews of men will be paving when the work on the asphalt begins, one being required for this work and another for the making of the concrete gutters. The work on Cumberland avenue will probably be finished by August 11, opening day of the Elks convention, though the newly paved street may not be ready for use by that time.

LOCUSTS DO NOT CAUSE POISONING

State Doctor Says No Record of Any Case of Kind—Refutes Widespread Rumor

LOUISVILLE, Ky., July 27.—(K. N. Tuck), this year has been swept by the seventeen year locusts and the thirteenth year locusts, the insects coming at the same time and both have done much damage in their wake. A multitude of reports are flooding the State Board of Health asking if berries, fruits and other vegetables have been poisoned during the visit of the plague. The report that the locusts had caused berries to be poisonous had its inception in a little published in a number of newspapers which stated that two Louisville children had been killed by eating strawberries poisoned by locusts.

So widespread is this report that thousands of persons have foregone eating small fruits, peas and cherries because the locusts feed on them. The State Board of Health, however, has issued a statement that never in the history of the medical history has there been a case where a person was made ill or poisoned by a locust in any manner.

Upon receiving word of the report from Russellville the State Board began an investigation and learned that the two children were made ill as the result of eating large quantities of green cherries. This is borne out by the death certificates made out by the attending physician which states that death was due to acute intestinal colitis.

Current stories to the effect that illness or death has been caused by eating of food poisoned by locusts are untrue. Blackberries, peas and chickpeas or any thing else can be eaten with perfect safety. Locusts do not poison food. The only danger is in eating them in large quantities.

REPORT SAYS THIS IS SHEPHERD'S YEAR

This is the best year for sheep in the history of the industry, according to a report issued by the American Sheep Raisers' Association. The report states that the number of sheep in the United States has increased by 100,000 in the last year, and that the industry is now at a peak.

The report also states that the price of sheep has increased by 50 percent in the last year, and that the industry is now at a peak. The report also states that the number of sheep in the United States has increased by 100,000 in the last year, and that the industry is now at a peak.

STATE LEADS IN BUTTER SALES

Butter sales in the state for the first six months of the year were the highest in the history of the industry, according to a report issued by the American Butter Producers' Association. The report states that the total sales of butter in the state for the first six months of the year were 100,000 tons, compared with 90,000 tons for the same period last year.

The report also states that the price of butter has increased by 25 percent in the last year, and that the industry is now at a peak. The report also states that the number of butter producers in the state has increased by 100 in the last year, and that the industry is now at a peak.

LOUISVILLE LIVESTOCK MARKET FOR JULY 19TH

Cattle—Receipts for June were 7,200 head, as against 10,197 head for the corresponding month the previous year. Showing a decrease of 2,997 head. This decrease is half of the total decrease since the first of the year. Although since the first of July the market has been good since the first issue and up until the first few days in this week when the general market suffered a decline of around 75 percent, caused principally by the extreme poor demand occasioned by the hot weather. Butchers generally are complaining of the very poor demand for fresh beef products. Practically no dry beef cattle are arriving and there is a sharp decline in the price of beef. The price of beef is falling on every point. Only well finished butcher beef and steers are still meeting the best of demand and medium stock meeting practically no shipping demand. As all markets are flooded with the same grade of stock and with the poor demand it is almost impossible to move them at anything like satisfactory prices. We do not look for any improvement in the runs will meet from now on.

LOUISVILLE'S ADVANTAGEOUS AS A POULTRY MARKET

Townsville as a shipping point for live poultry and eggs is looking to the front. Since the Louisville Provision Company entered the field, by offering top prices to poultry raisers, shipments are being attracted from a wide section and from many points that formerly shipped elsewhere. In addition to shipments of dressed poultry under refrigeration and large amount placed locally, there are a few poultry raisers who ship live poultry to Eastern markets. When it is considered that each one carries approximately 1,000 to 5,000 birds, one can realize the extent of this movement.

LOUISVILLE LIVESTOCK SHOW WILL BE HELD SEPT. 7

The success of the show promoted to encourage the Junior Agricultural Club is assured. As previously announced the date is September 7th. Advice from Prof. Carl W. Buckler, State Fender of the Junior Club, was to the effect that something over 2,000 pigs are being put in condition for this show. It bids fair to be the largest show of its kind in the United States this year. The wide interest displayed in this first show was hardly to be expected. It emphasizes what we have said in the past concerning Junior Club work. There is nothing that will tend to develop and broaden the young farmer like richly displayed in these contests. Their educational value cannot be overestimated. All forms of boys and girls club work should be encouraged. It helps to develop the highest type of manhood and womanhood.

KENTUCKY STATE FAIR TO OPEN SEPTEMBER 10

September 10th the opening day of the Kentucky State Fair is drawing near. Every effort will be made to make this one eclipse all records. The Fair Association has made a splendid move, thus abolishing the Midway from the coming fair and engaging a high class circus to take its place. Despite the efforts made to obtain only clean and wholesome attractions it was not always possible to keep the midway shows up to the desired standard. Other State Fair Associations have also declined their intention to get away from the objectionable midway.

"WORSE THAN PAIN"

Louisiana Lady Says She Has "Never Found Anything Better Than Cardui for a Run-Down Condition."

Morgan City, La.—"It would be hard for me to tell how much benefit I have derived from the use of Cardui," said Mrs. I. G. Bowman, of 1319 Front Street, this city. "I was so run-down in health I could hardly go. I was thin. I had no appetite. I could not rest or sleep well. I was so weak, and very nervous, I was no pleasure to myself. "I suffered some pain, but the worst of my trouble was from being so weak and easy to get tired and out of heart. "This nervous condition was worse than pain. "Some one told me of Cardui, and I decided to use it. "After using a few bottles, I regained my strength. I wasn't so nervous, and began to eat and sleep, and grew stronger and was soon well. "I have never found anything better for a run-down condition. If you suffer as this Louisiana lady did, you, too, should find Cardui helpful for your troubles. Get a bottle of Cardui today. NC-144

but in only one quality. Different types of motors require different weights of lubricating oil, and in order to supply the finest quality of oil for every motor, Polarine is manufactured in the following weights: "Medium," "Heavy," "Heavy X," and "Heavy XX." The only difference between these grades is in their "body"—all of the oiliness found in the Heavy XX is also to be had in the Medium and other grades. There are two ways of being sure to get the right grade of oil for your motor—first, demand Polarine; and second, consult the chart of recommendations (on display at filling stations) so that you may be sure to get the proper grade for your car.

The Community Builder

Coal is to-day one of the basic necessities of our industrial life. Cut off the supply, and most of the wheels of manufacture, transportation and trade would cease to turn. Millions of people would be thrown out of work and much discomfort and actual suffering would result.

Coal is a great community builder—and the very foundation of the commercial life of many great cities and population centers.

The present high place that the Birmingham District holds in the industrial life of the country dates from the activities of the L. & N. Railroad in building to the large and valuable deposits of coal and iron ore in the country surrounding Birmingham. The Birmingham Mineral Division and its branches now total over 300 miles, and the production of coal for 1922, on the B. M. and the S. & N. A. Divisions in Alabama, was 90,032 cars—or four and one-quarter million tons.

In three of the large coal-producing counties of Eastern and Southeastern Kentucky—Perry, Harlan and Letcher, which are served by the L. & N. and where the coal fields appear to be almost inexhaustible, during the last decade within which the activities of the coal business were begun through the L. & N.'s construction of tracks into this territory—the increase in population over that of the previous decade was more than one thousand per cent; and in Perry County the assessed value of property increased approximately six thousand per cent. It has been stated that so far, the vast sources of coal in this section have been merely scratched.

From the latest available figures it is estimated that approximately 410,000,000 tons of coal were mined in the United States during 1922. In that year more than 23,000,000 tons, or 6% of the total out-put—exclusive of the coal used in its operation—originated at the mines along the L. & N.

The importance of the L. & N. Railroad as a coal carrier and the part it plays in community building are thus clearly indicated.

DROP COOKIES

Why not make drop cookies during the hot summer months? While the rolled ones are perfect in shape they really don't taste a bit better and take just twice as long to make.

Cookies offer a charming accompaniment to ice tea in the afternoon.
are delightful for a picnic and are quite as acceptable as cake with a simple fruit ice for dessert.

Drop cookies with nuts or raisins in them are just that much better than plain ones, but the plain cream cookies are wonderfully good.

Cream Cookies

Two eggs, 1 cup sweet cream, 1 cup sugar, 3 cups flour, 3 teaspoons baking powder, 1 teaspoon salt, nutmeg.

Beat eggs well with a Dover beater.
Add sugar and continue beating. Add cream and beat well. Mix and sift flour, salt and baking powder and stir into first mixture. Add nutmeg.

Drop from a spoon onto a well buttered and floured cookie sheet. Flatten with spoon to prevent cookies from being too thick when baked. Sprinkle lightly with sugar and drop a raisin in the center of each cookie. Bake twelve minutes in a moderately hot oven. As these cookies need no butter they are not expensive. If sour cream is used stir one-fourth teaspoon of baking powder as with sweet cream.

Rolling Oats Cookies

Two cups light brown sugar, 1-2 cup butter, 2 eggs, 1-2 cup sour milk, 1 teaspoon soda, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, 2 cups flour, 2 cups rolled oats, 1-2 cup chopped English walnuts, 1-2 cup chopped raisins.

Cream butter and sugar. Add eggs, well beaten. Dissolve soda in milk and add to first mixture. Add remaining ingredients and mix thoroughly.
Drop from a spoon onto a well buttered and floured sheet. Bake in a hot oven.

Chocolate Drop Cookies

Two cups granulated sugar, 3 cups flour, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1-2 cup butter, 1-2 cup chocolate, 1-2 cup eggs, 3 teaspoons vanilla, 1-2 teaspoon salt.

Melt chocolate. Add sugar. Mix and sift flour and baking powder. Add to first mixture. Beat eggs, butter and vanilla well together. Add first mixture to this, slowly beating well. Drop on greased and floured cookie sheet
and bake in a moderate oven.

Hub Cookies

One cup butter, 1-2 cups brown sugar, 2-1/2 cups flour, 3 eggs, 1-2 cups chopped raisins, 1-2 teaspoon soda, 1-2 teaspoon salt.

Cream butter and sugar. Add part of the flour. Add eggs well beaten.
Add raisins with remaining flour sifted over them. Add soda dissolved in a little warm water. Add salt. Mix well at each step. Drop from spoon and bake in a hot oven.

Not always is it the fault of a man's stroke or any diminution of his physical powers that he suddenly finds himself off color and apparently unable to get back on his regular game.
Frequently the fault is with his eyes.
A majority of men have their eyes tested every so often for reading glasses, but they do not always appreciate that the eyes also have to be attended to the golf stroke and that the correction made for near-vision purposes
may not suffice for the out-of-door game.

I mention this because I happen to know of the case of a man who for years was a very fine golfer, a grand golfer, for one of his age, whose game suddenly went back on him to such an extent that instead of scoring in the low 80's and sometimes in the 70's he began to slip into the 90's and actually once or twice had gone into three figures for the first time in his career.

After watching him play one round
I made up my mind that with him it was nothing more nor less than eyesight. He was hitting way back of his ball and catching it on the upstroke,
where before that he was a firm, crisp and sure hitter directly on the ball on the downstroke.

He has experimented with a new swing, but no matter how he changes his stance, where he placed his feet in relation to the ball, he kept hitting well back of the ball.

Nothing but eyesight could account for this continued habit, in the case of a man who had been so excellent a player, and to my mind he will never get back to his old game until he has consulted the oculist.

Sometimes, too, it is a little stomach
